MANHATTAN COLLEGE INTENSIVE ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROGRAM

FAST FACTS

The Intensive English Language Program (IELP) is designed for international students who would like to enter degree programs at Manhattan College, but do not yet have the English proficiency scores to do so.

Some advantages of studying at the IELP are:

- Opportunity to improve English language skills at a comfortable campus setting in New York City
- Exposure to American college classroom teaching
- Small class sizes, typically 12 students or fewer
- A great first step into Manhattan College life

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The program offers six levels of English courses for students of all levels. Each level is one semester in length. Students receive a pass/fail mark at the end of each level. Students are placed in levels either using their TOEFL/IELTS scores or by their IELP placement examination score.
